The 22nd Annual Long Island LGBT Conference

Wednesday, March 21
8:30am - 2:00pm

On Wednesday, March 21, 2018 the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Network will hold its 22nd Annual Long Island LGBT Conference at the Stony Brook University Charles B. Wang Center.

The annual Long Island LGBT Conference is Long Island's only LGBT-specific conference that educates and empowers students, educators, health and human service providers, and other members of the community to address the needs of LGBT people throughout the lifespan in their schools and communities.

We look forward to seeing you on March 21st for this powerful day of education, networking, and community organizing!

Please register by Wednesday, March 14th.

For questions regarding the conference, please call 631.665.2300 or email Mauro Gomez at mgomez@lgbtnetwork.org.

The 22nd Annual Long Island LGBT Conference offers attendees a broad range of workshops with topics of interest to students, educators, activists, professionals, and community members. Workshops are offered in the following areas:

- Community and Youth Organizing
- LGBT History
- Health
- Social Justice
