PROGRAMS FOR TRANSGENDER, GENDER NON-CONFORMING, & NON-BINARY PEOPLE

As a middle-aged Trans Woman, I spent my life hiding from myself and the world. When I came to accept my reality, I needed some connection, someone with similar circumstances who could understand where I was coming from and could offer advice and compassion. I nervously walked into the center and was immediately welcomed with understanding and friendship.”

MAKING IMPACT

COMING OUT

CAMPAIGN

COMING OUT FOR SAFE SPACES

For the 22nd year-in-a-row, the LGBT Network organized its National Coming Out Day #WearTheRibbon Campaign in local schools, workplaces, and organizations. This Campaign builds visibility and awareness, and makes advances in creating schools, workplaces, and organizations that are safer and more inclusive for LGBT people. This Campaign is more vital than ever given the surge of anti-LGBT hate and rhetoric ravaging our communities that aim to keep LGBT youth in the closet – a dangerous outcome.

Using Rainbow and Trans Pride ribbons, posters, and other materials provided by the LGBT Network, the Campaign is implemented by students, teachers, librarians, corporate professionals, and other community leaders to create safe spaces for LGBT people.

These visuals serve to remind people of the existence of LGBT people and the continued challenges that exist:

9 out of 10 LGBT youth hear anti-LGBT remarks at school every day

More than 50% of LGBT people aren't out at work

“The National Coming Out Day Campaign is important because It shows students and others they have a safe place to turn to.”

Samantha Garcia, Teacher/GSA Advisor

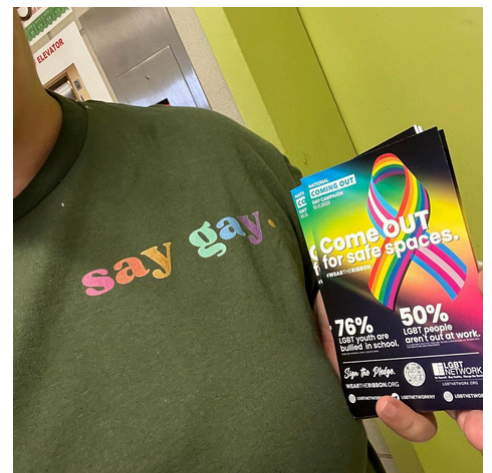

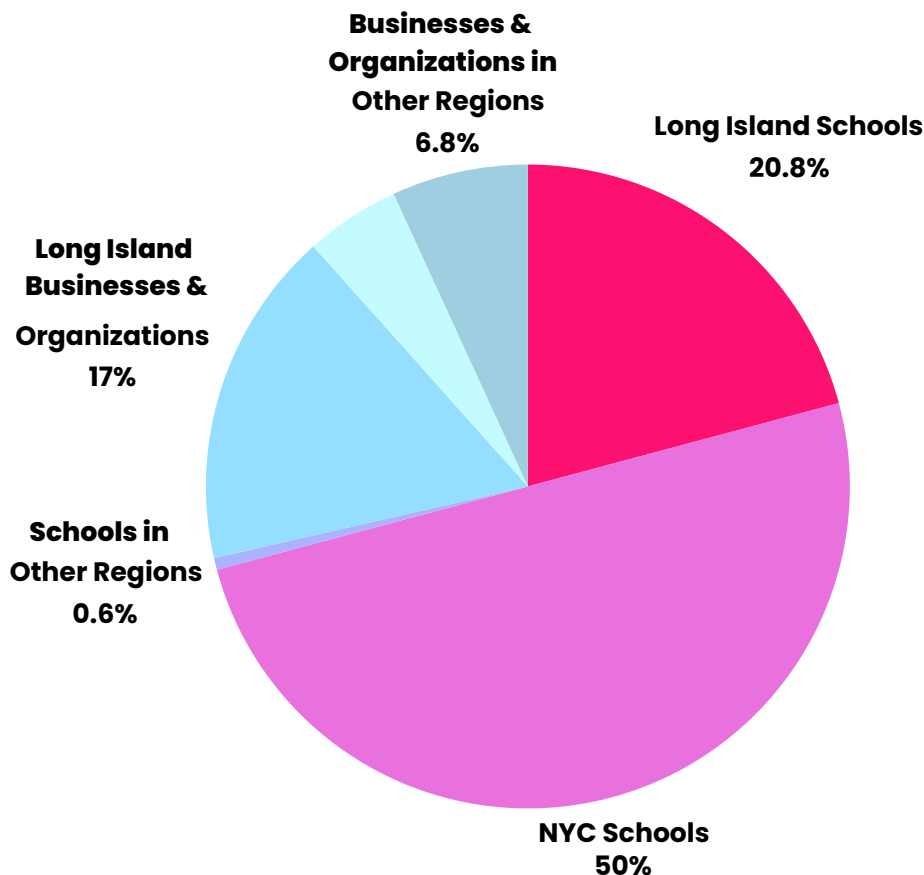

NYCDOE School - PS/IS 113 Anthony J. Pranzo, Glendale, NY

YOUTH TAKE A STAND AGAINST BULLYING

Annual Event Knocks Down Walls of Hate

Night of Noise unites LGBT youth and their friends to commemorate Day of Silence, a national day of action to increase awareness about the bullying of LGBT youth. LGBT Network hosts a series of Night of Noise events to "break the silence" and empower LGBT youth to stand-up to bullying.

"You get a chance to tear it down - that you can stand up against it ... to show that you can break it and it doesn't have to break you."
